Look past the waves onto that floating rock

The Fahal Island swim
is an endurance race
from an island four Kms away
to the white shores of Ras Al Hamra.

Swimming through sharks and the deep blue, 1000s braved the waves and the freeze to claim their glory of the seas.

You have a glory to claim but before that, enjoy this right of passage through memory lane.

Head to the coffee shop and order a "lemonade no sugar".
